From The East

Worshipful John Weldon

Hello My Brothers:

to

This is my last article for the Trestleboard as my year as your Worshipful Master is coming to an end. It has been an honor and a privilege serving you in this capacity. I want to thank all my Officers and Brothers for their support, encouragement, and cooperation during this challenging year. I had set goals to accomplish, but unfortunately I was not able to complete the task. I look forward to the incoming Officers and support them in all their endeavors and accomplishments.

Although it has taken five years, we now have a dishwasher in the kitchen that will certainly help for all of our future events. Thank you to Worshipful Shaun Imbody for continuing to pursue this endeavor until it was accomplished. I know the kitchen crew is extremely happy.

The Grand Masters visit on Nov 20th was a great success with over 140 guests in attendance, welcoming him and his First Lady. I personally want to say thank you to all the Brothers who worked so hard in the kitchen and did an outstanding job to make this a success. I am looking forward to many more future events such as this one.

December 8th will be our last Stated Meeting for 2020. I am encouraging as many Brothers as possible to attend.

Again, thank you for our support and help during the past year. It was greatly appreciated. I will never forget my year as Worshipful Master of Clearwater Lodge No 127.

Anita and I want to wish all my Brothers and their families a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Stay Safe and healthy.

Greetings from the West, my Brothers.

We will be having an officer's meeting on Tuesday December 1, at 530PM. At this meeting we will be discussing next year's calendar, budget, committee assignments, officer expectations, and programs. Now is the time to contact the officers with any suggestions or requests you might have. We are still in need of a Tyler and Steward for next year, so please let me know if you have any interest in either position.

Installation of Officers for 2021 will be on Saturday, January 2nd. It will be an open installation, open to the public, friends, and family. There will be a meal served at 5:30 PM with installation to begin at 6:30PM. Please contact the lodge secretary if you wish to attend so we can get a reasonable count for the meal.

2020 has been an interesting year. I would like to thank ALL the brothers who have given of themselves in order to help the lodge through these tumultuous times.

Fraternally,

Shaun

Queen Esther Chapter #4 Order of Eastern Star which meets in Clearwater Lodge is asking for your help. Queen Esther received its Charter on May 24, 1905 and is therefore one of the oldest Chapters in the state of Florida. Eastern Star is one of the largest organizations where Men and Women can work together. Many of our members are older and unable to participate in Chapter activities. Eastern Star strives to take good people and build an Order truly dedicated to Charity, Truth and Loving Kindness.

Those eligible for membership are: Master Masons in good standing, the wives, daughters, legally adopted daughters, mothers, widows, sisters, half-sisters, granddaughters, stepmothers, stepdaughters stepsisters, daughters-in-law, grandmothers, great granddaughters, nieces, great-nieces, mothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, aunts, and first and second female cousins of Master Masons in good standing at the time of their death. Rainbow Girls and Jobs Daughters 18 years or older who have been active for 3 years or more or majority are eligible for membership.

Any member of the Chapter would be glad to talk you about Eastern Star. Please join us at our next open event: Christmas with the Stars – December 19th from 5:00 to 9:00 pm, ornament auction and cookie exchange. (Be sure to wrap cookies individually due to Covid-19)

I cannot believe we are finishing another year already. And what a seemingly catastrophic year it seemed to be because of everything our Country has needed to deal with. However, we must thank our Worshipful Master and his Officers for getting the Lodge through 2020 with a positive attitude and a "Go for it" perspective. We consider all that has been accomplished through a three-month shutdown of our Country, and the Lodge, due to the Pandemic and take pride in a new automatic dishwasher installed, the beautification of our property, the successful State events that were held here instead of the Masonic Home. Even though our income producing events have been extremely limited, and maintenance costs increased, Your Lodge has handled the "storm" very well financially. Our Investments remain to be on the plus side, and though our budget is somewhat depleted, we are still in good shape. With that said, 2021 cannot come soon enough and we look forward to many even greater things to accomplish. Our incoming line of Officers have been planning many different projects that should prove to make for a very successful year. Brethren, we are now in the most beautiful and thankful time of the year and I want to wish you all the very, very, best Seasons Greetings! Please remember your Brothers and their families through this season. Give them a call just to see how they are doing, express the positivity of Lodge Events for 2021, and express our Masonic Love and prayers for them and their loved ones. COVID-19 has shuttered us all and this season can be very depressing to some. So let's do as much as we can to brighten their spirits.

Your Lodge is working with the Ladies of Queen Esther Chapter in presenting the annual Christmas With the Stars on Saturday, Dec 19, from 5-9pm. This looks to be a fun affair with a chili supper, annual Christmas ornament auction, cookie exchange, songs of the season, and great fellowship. This also coincides with our Lodge Charity of Toys for Tots. Worshipful John Brown has graciously consented to bring his equipment, and voice, for a memorable night. AND, we understand there will be a Very Special Guest for the kids in us. Please plan on attending, bringing a few small toys, a tree ornament, or two, a dozen cookies (individually wrapped), and your precious smiles and warm personality, for a great time! Please bring your family, friends, and neighbors to celebrate the Season.

From The SecretaryFarran Bognar

The year is almost over which means we will soon march to a different drummer. I'm hoping next year will be filled with much fellowship and get togethers. We missed out on that this year due to the dreaded virus. We should see a vaccine soon and then, maybe, things will get back to normal.

Our Installation will be on January 2nd, which means, those individuals that are going to be installed as officers will have to have a paid up dues card (2021) by the installation. Speaking of paid up dues. Out of the 164 members, 39 active members have paid, 79 have not. We have 45 exempt members, of which 19 are Perpetual and 26 are 50 year exempt. So as you can see, half of the members (Active) have not paid. We have 5 members that have not paid for 2020.

November was especially trying for me. I had some back pain that was turning chronic and I couldn't seem to shake it. I'm sure some of you know the type of pain I'm talking about. I finally got some specialists together and they were able to come up with a treatment plan to get rid of it, hopefully, for good. I feel as though I can do my job without that nagging, persistent pain that seems to take your focus off of what really needs to be done. I want to thank those individuals for helping me rid myself of this festering pain.

Finally, in closing, the Lodge will not have a Stated Communication on December 22nd. OES is having an XMAS party on December 19th. Remember to bring in some Toys for the Tots.

From the Chaplain

Clifford Wright

The Night Before Christmas, Down at the Lodge

'twas the Night before Christmas, and down at the Lodge
Not a gavel was stirring, and in the hodge-podge
Of aprons and jewels and chairs East and West
You could savor the silence, most gladly divest
All metal and mineral, it mattered not, since Christmas was nigh and the coals were still hot
In the hearth of your homestead, all Masons abed,
as visions of trestle boards danced in their head;
When up on the roof there arose such a clatter,
Our Tiler jumped up to see what was the matter!
He picked up his sword and ran fast to the door,
three knocks shook the panels - he wondered 'What for?'
He answered the knocking with, raps of his own,
and once the door opened he saw, with a moan
Of delight it was Santa, all jolly and red
Except for one notable feature Instead!
Upon his large finger lie wore what we knew was compass and square on a background of blue!
'Why Santa!' he shouted and lowered his blade
'I see you're a Mason!' the Tiler relayed.
He looked toward the Master's most dignified chair
and said, voice near trembling, 'Most Worshipful there
Is a Gentleman properly clothed at the gate!'
The Master replied, 'Let's allow him - but wait!
You tell me a Gentleman, but I don't see
His Apron beneath that red suit, can it be
Our visitor hasn't been properly raised?
Must we offer a test that is suitably phrased?
'I do beg your pardon,' old' Santa said quick
As he pulled up his coat and displayed not a stick
But a cane with, engraving, two balls did appear and oh, what an apron, he wore and held dear!
Adorned like the Master' complete with a sign
Of "Lodge Number One, the North Pole" on one line!
"Now let man enter," the Master declared,
and once in the Lodge room the Brethren all stared,
For Santa was wearing a jewel not seen for many a century - there in between
The fur of his coat and the splendid red collar gleamed two golden reindeer that shone like a dollar!
"It's Donner and Blitzen, who, I must confess
Are actually images brought from the West
By my Warden, a craftsman like none in the world!"
And with a great laugh from his bag he unfurled
An ear of fine corn and some oil from the east,
"My friend I have plenty, tonight we will feast
On all that is good! We are Masons, kind sir!"
A murmur went throughout the Lodge, quite a stir,
As presents and promises flew from his sack
This Santa, a Mason, showed he had a knack
For making this Christmas the best you could glean,
And soon even Deacons were laughing, they'd seen
On this very night only happiness reigned!
This jolly Saint Nicholas quickly explained
That only a Mason could be so inclined to make all kids happy, make all people find
A Christmas so special, yes, Santa was right!
Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night!

"I don't believe in a Christmas celebration by the lodge. I don't think we ought to have one, or be asked to contribute to one or in any way engage in Christmas festivities."

"The Junior Mason spoke emphatically and with marked disapproval of the little ante-room group nearby, making happy plans for Yule-tide.

"That's very interesting," commented the Old Past Master. I like to hear points of view unfamiliar to me. Would you mind telling me why?"

"Of course not. It's very simple. Masonry is not Christian. King Solomon, of course, wasn't a Christian, nor were either of the Hiram's. Masonry admits to her ranks any good man of faith; Christian, Jewish, Mohammedan, Buddhist... it makes no difference, so he has a Faith. Then, as a lodge, we celebrate a holiday belonging to one faith. Now I personally am a Christian, and of course I celebrate Christmas. But my brother across the way is a Jew, who does not recognize Christianity. To ask him to spend his proportion of lodge funds in celebrating the birth of a Leader in Whom he does not believe would be exactly like asking me to celebrate, with my proportion of lodge money, the birth of Confucius. Of course, I have only one vote and the majority rules, but when it comes to personal contributions to a Masonic Christmas celebration, my hands will never come out of my pockets."

He shoved them deeper in as he spoke to emphasize his intention not to spend.

"Hum!" answered the Old Past Master. "So you think your Jewish brother across the way doesn't recognize Christianity? Don't you mean he doesn't recognize Christ as the Son of God? Wait a minute... Oh, Brother Samuels." The Old Past Master called across the ante-room. "Here a minute, will you?"

The Jewish brother rose and came forward.

"I just wanted to ask you if you are in favor or against the lodge Christmas celebration?" asked the Old Past Master.

"Me? I am in favor of it, of course, both for the lodge appropriation and the individual contribution."

"Thank you," nodded the Old Past Master. Then as the Jewish brother went back to his seat, he turned to the Junior Mason.

"You see, my son, our Jewish friend is not narrow. He does not believe in Christ as the Redeemer, but he recognizes that he lives in a country largely Christian, and belongs to a lodge largely Christian. To him the Christmas celebration is not one of His birthday, but of the spirit of joyousness and love which we mean when we sing, at Christmas time 'Peace on earth, good will towards men!' If you argue that 'peace' is only a Christian word, he might even quote to you the words of One who said 'I bring you not Peace, but a Sword.'

"Now let me explain something to you. The Jew has just as much right to refuse to recognize Christ as the Son of God, as you have to refuse to consider Mohammed the Prophet the followers of Allah say he is. But as an educated man, you must know that Mohammed was a good man, a devout leader, a wise teacher. As an educated man, you admit that the religion founded by Buddha has much in it that is good, and you admit that Confucius was a wise and just leader. Were you in the land where the birthdays of any of these were celebrated, would you refuse your part in the people's joy in their Leader, simply because you followed another? I trust not. Well, neither do our Jewish brethren or our Mohammedan brethren, desire to be left out of our celebration. They may not believe in the Divinity of Him we, as Christians, follow, but if they are good men and good Masons... they are perfectly willing to admit that the religion we follow is as good for us as theirs is for them, and to join with us in celebrating the day which is to us the glad day of all the year.

"Believe me, boy, Christmas doesn't mean Christ's birthday to many a man who calls himself Christian. It is not because of joy the He was born that many a good man celebrates Christmas. It is because his neighbor celebrates it, because it is a time of joy for little ones, because it is a day when he can express his thanks to his God that he is allowed to have a wife and family and children and friends and a lodge, because of that very 'peace on earth' spirit which is no more the property of the Gentile than the Jew, the Chinese or the Mohammedan.

"It is such a spirit that Masons join, all, in celebrating Christmas. It is on the Masonic side of the tree we dance, not the Christian side. When this lodge erects its Christmas tree in the basement and throws it open to the little ones of the poor of this town, you will find children of all kinds there; black, white, yellow, and brown, Jew and Gentile, Christian and Mohammedan. And you will find a Jew at the door, and among the biggest subscriptions will be those from some Jewish brethren, and there is a Jew who rents cars for a living who will supply us a dozen free to take baskets to those who cannot come. And when the Jewish Orphan Asylum has its fair, in the Spring, you will find many a Christian Mason attending to spend his money and help along the cause dear to his Jewish brethren, never remembering that they are of a different faith. That, my son, is Masonry."

"For Charity is neither Christian nor Jewish, nor Chinese nor Buddhistic. And celebrations which create joy in little hearts and feed the hungry and make the poor think that Masons do not forget the lessons in lodge, are not Christian alone, though they be held at Christmas, and are not for Christians alone, though the celebration be in His honor. Recall the ritual: 'By the exercise of brotherly love we are taught to regard the whole human species as one family, the high and low, the rich and poor, who, as created by one Almighty Parent, and inhabitants of the same planet, are to aid, support and protect each other'.

"It is with this thought that we, as Masons, celebrate Christmas, to bring joy to our brethren and their little ones, and truly observe the brotherhood of man and the Fatherhood of God, whether we be Jew or Gentile, Mohammedan or Buddhist." The Old Past Master ceased and stood musing, his old eyes looking back along a long line of lodge Christmas trees about which eager little faces danced. Then he turned to the Junior Mason.

"Well," he said smiling, "Do you understand?"

"I thank you for my Christmas present," came the answer. "Please tell me to which brother I should make my Christmas contribution?"
